

The Compiler.

Grading, Monday Morning, May 14, 1866.

ST. J. STABLE, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

FOR GOVERNOR,
HON. HESTER CLYMER, of Berks County.

MR. CLYMER AT HOME.

One of the Union organs at Reading recently started a story that Hester Clymer, the Democratic candidate for Governor, whenever a candidate for office in Berks County, ran behind his ticket. This falsehood is republished in all the "small-fly" journals of that party, and the editors roll it under the tongue "as a very sweet morsel." But the pleasing delusion is badly "quelled" by the facts. In 1860, when Mr. Clymer was first elected to the Senate, to fill a vacancy, he led 2331 majority—51 less than Mr. Ancona, and 718 more than Mr. McEnty, the Congressional candidate. In 1861, when he was elected for the full term, he led 4434 majority—the largest, by far, from 110 to 400, of any candidate upon the Democratic ticket of that year. The Reading Gazette ascribes the Democracy of the State that Clymer is all right at home.

AFTER THE ELECTION.

Hawley, recently elected Governor of Connecticut, (by "the skin of his teeth"), was, before the election, declared to be opposed to negro voting. But in his inaugural, the other day, he took square ground in favor of negro suffrage, and urged another election in Connecticut for its adoption. How much longer will the people allow themselves to be humbugged by these unprincipled negro-quality demagogues?

The appropriation asked for the Freedmen's Bureau, for the next fiscal year, is nearly $12,000,000. Pennsylvania's share of this will probably be $1,500,000. Suppose but one-third of this amount was appropriated to the whole people in Adams County who suffered by the battle here, what a comfortable measure of relief it would afford them.

But we can hardly expect any attention to be given the honest demands of the white race, so long as negro fanatics and demagogues shape the legislation of the State and nation. There must be a change in this respect, or our injured people will never get a dollar.

Auditor General Vantrant has called a Soldiers' Convention at Pittsburgh, to meet in June next. That "there is a nigger in the woodpile," is already evident. The movement is an electioneering stratagem, and designed to help the sinking fortunes of Geary. It is a humbugging conservative man in the State, we shall be much mistaken. Such transparent dodges never win.

The Constitutional Amendment.—The plan of the so-called Reconstruction Committee for obstructing the restoration of the Union went through the House on Thursday afternoon by a strict party vote—128 to 37. It is understood that the bills which accompanied the constitutional amendment will not be acted upon by the House until the late of the amendment is settled by the action of the Senate. It is confidently asserted that it cannot receive the requisite vote (two-thirds) in that body.

Says the Philadelphia Ledger (Independents): "The returns of the town elections in Indiana, Michigan, Illinois, Wisconsin and Iowa, continue to show large Democratic gains." And why should they not, when the leaders of the so-called Republican party have proved false to the Union and the Constitution? Democracy, as acknowledged and believed in by every true man, must eventually triumph—not that patronage may go to a particular class of persons, but that the country may be saved from dissolution, and that the rights and blessings of free institutions may become the birthright and heirloom of every American citizen.

The love which the Radicals bear to the army has been instructively illustrated by the conduct of the Senate during the past week.

Three Generals of the army, nominated for posts in the diplomatic service, have been rejected by the majority of that body, because they were known or supposed to be favorable to the President's policy of peace, reconciliation, and the speedy reconstruction of the Union.

The only "loyalty" recognized by the Radicals, in or out of Congress, is "loyalty" not to the Union, but to the policy of Sumner, Wade, and Stevens.

In regard to Secretary Stanton, the National Intelligencer announced, a few days ago, that at a late Cabinet meeting Mr. Stanton had taken a firm stand in favor of President Johnson's policy of restoration, and that he had expressed his views in no equivocal or doubtful terms for the immediate restoration of the Union! This statement was at first denied by the Dauphin press, and the Secretary was called upon to deny it. This he did not do; but, instead the same journal replied that—"Mr. Stanton spoke at length, was more pronounced and emphatic than our editors prepared report stated."

Further than this, it was stated (and it remains uncontradicted) that the report of the Cabinet meeting had been exhibited to and endorsed by every one of the members present.

On Monday week the Democracy of Wilkes-Barre elected J. B. Stark Burgess by a majority of 881. The town heretofore went "Republican!" Negroism is blossoming out rapidly in Pennsylvania.

The Senate has confirmed the appointment of Joseph F. Knipe to be Postmaster at Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, and Mr. Smyth as Collector of the Port of New York.

The Soldiers of M. Clinton and Patterson, Juniata County, have organized a Cypher Club. Lieut. John T. Melin is President, and Lieut. A. P. Williams and E. J. Naugle are Secretaries. This is a severe blow at the paper General Geary from a quarter whence it was least expected.

An attempt was recently made to poison the wife of Mr. J. P. Hagerty, of Weirburg, Alabama, with a party of guests, visiting him at the time. The attempt was made by a negro girl, who has been arrested.

ANOTHER WAR TO REPERCUSSATE DIS-UNION.

The agency of the Radical Disunionists in Congress is only equalled by the recklessness of their birthing supporters. Not only do they rejoice in the belief that they have broken up the old Union, but they are willing to inaugurate another war for the purpose of perpetuating Disunion. The Harrisburg Telegraph admits that the Union has been destroyed and broken up by the war. It says, speaking of the plan for perpetuating Disunion proposed by Congress:

"The amendment must command two-thirds of each branch of Congress before it can come before the State Legislatures. There is nothing in the way of this two-thirds Congressional vote. After it has passed Congress, it will require the ratification of three-fourths of the States. There are twenty-five States left. That is the number of States now on the flag. According to the Disunionists the eleven States recently in rebellion have succeeded in accomplishing their purpose. They are out of the Union. Only twenty-five are left. What will the soldiers think of such an avowal from the organ of General Geary? Are they prepared to admit that all their sacrifices have been in vain; that the States which rebelled are still out of the Union; that J. F. Davis and his armies were successful in their designs; that the Union is to all intents and purposes dissolved and broken up? Will they say with the Telegraph:

"Congress must take this ground or it is lost. It is the loyal and the only tenable ground, as we have shown over and over again. On any other ground those late insurgent States do not need reconstruction; and on any other ground the President or Congress will be compelled to force through this amendment as they did the previous one, at the point of the bayonet!"

Are the returned soldiers, asks the Freedmen's Intelligencer, ready to buckle on their armor to aid the corrupt politicians who would follow the lead of Thad. Stevens in inaugurating another revolution? That is the Radical Disunion platform on which General Geary stands. The amendment which is designed to establish negro suffrage and negro equality is to be "forced through at the point of the bayonet." We are to have another bloody war, if those political Jacobins cannot otherwise succeed in their designs of preventing a restoration of the Union. That war will not be against the South alone. It will extend over the whole country. Are the owners of property ready to risk it in such a struggle? Are the business men anxious to see such a contest begin? Are the holders of Government securities certain they will be valuable after this new struggle is over? Are the Conservative thinking men of the country willing to risk in the inauguration of a civil war which will greatly exceed in atrocity that through which we have passed? The Radical Disunionists now their readiness to begin it. Is it not high time they were crushed out of existence? That would be their fate very speedily, and not in a political sense alone, if they should make the attempt to which they are urged by the Harrisburg Telegraph. Is not the duty of all men plain in the present crisis? The Radical Disunionists must be hushed from power. All the best interests of the country imperatively demand it.

WHAT PRIVATE MILLS O'BRIEN SAYS.

The name of Private Miles O'Brien is as familiar to every soldier as any household word. We find in his paper, the New York Citizen, an article upon the state of the South, from which we make some pertinent extracts. It must be kept in mind that Colonel Halpine (better known to the literary public as Private Miles O'Brien), who edits that journal, was one of the most brilliant officers in the Federal service during the recent war. He is better entitled, therefore, to speak of the conditions of peace than any of the vast horde of Radical scribblers, who having done their fighting by proxy, are now anxious to oppress and plunder the vanquished in person.

If we are to continue a government of representatives selected by the people, on what principles can the representatives of one State dictate to another what class of representatives that people shall select?—in not one of the cotton States could a colored man be elected, and yet they were loyal to the Union throughout the war. If found, would also be found the very poorest and meanest kind of trash. All the true manhood of the South—let us frankly recognize the fact—was in the rebellion; and to expect the Southern people to remain to select their representative in Congress is to expect the South to be a vassal state, with a Southern States' Rights Cavalry who stood aloof from their desperate struggle, is to demand that a whole people shall become hypocrites, and organize a lie to their own disgrace and injury.

The men who led the South in war must lead it in peace, or it will drift without leading into anarchy.

To say that the lately rebellious States, "You are free to choose such representatives as you please, provided only that you select such men as we dictate, and these shall be men with whom you have not a sympathy in common," is both an injury and an insult. The recent war was conducted on the theory that the Union existed, and that any pretended acts of secession were wholly null and void. On this theory our naval and military forces were sent, and if their success meant anything, it meant that immediately on the cessation of armed resistance by evil combinations of men in the Southern States the Union was restored in its integrity over every foot of our soil. But now, forthwith, the people of the South are told that before they can be allowed representation in Congress, they must agree to send none but men for whose capacities, trends and instincts stomach the most nauseating political bulwark of the Radical New England school will be none too hot or too heavy."

In the name of heaven, are there not enough votes in Congress to override the Southern vote, in case it should seek to inject any injury on the republic? Why should we any longer allow representatives of a government, if the choice shall be limited to men the most obnoxious, personally and in politics, to the constituents they are to make the pretense of representing? Suppose John Minor Bott and Robert E. Lee candidates for Congress in every district of Virginia east of the Blue Ridge and south of Fairfax Court-house, which man would be the proper representative? Would not that district of ex-rebels deserve the scorn and infamy of the world that could be so hungry for a seat in Congress to make Mr. Lee its choice, to the exclusion of the great soldier who ably led the forces of Virginia and the South through many a bloody fight?

In a word, it is better to have honest, well-born, wealthy and manly representatives from the Southern States—gentlemen thoroughly in the confidence and respect of their constituents; or, shall we insist that a lying, crooked, pensionless, poverty-stricken son of a wretched renegade shall be sent—men who could not in their own districts receive a hundred votes unless by fraud, and who, if elected, would command no following or adhesion of their misrepresented constituents? We are for putting the best men of the South on guard in this crisis; and the best men, as a class, were those most active in the rebellion. These were faithful to the Union, and will not be so frank. Would not ninety out of every hundred men who fought most gallantly for the Union, have fought as gallantly for the rebellion, if the accidents of their birth and residence had been reversed? We speak of the veritable blunderbuss of the summer strike, whose veins swirl with equal parts of gall, lymph and water.

Taxation without representation is tyranny, we cry, and yet the South is taxed with a voice in Congress. How long shall this abnormal state of things continue? How long will the free intelligence of the Middle and Western States accept, with the humility of whipped spaniels, the rancorous and bigoted dictation of New England's disunionists? Let us have that combination of selfish and unscrupulous avarice with pitiless and frenzied bigotry.

PROBET THE MURDERER.

This hardened wretch, the murderer of the Darling family, has made a full confession, acknowledging that he committed the horrid deed, or deeds, himself, without any accomplice, and that his object was Mr. Darling's money.

He says he was born in Illinois, county of Rulensers Lee Kreis; is 24 years and 10 months old; and came to this country in 1863. He immediately enlisted in the army, and some time after deserted; enlisted and deserted again; enlisted the third time, and was discharged in May, 1865. Hunting work, he called at Mr. Darling's; was engaged; but soon left, because of some disagreement. On the 21st of February he went back, and was again employed. He had the getting of Darling's money in his mind, and about ten days before he murdered the family he contemplated killing them. We quote the following from his confession, as given by one of the newspaper reporters:

HOW HE COMMITTED THE MURDER.—Saturday morning (the day of the murder) was a dark, cold and rainy day. I went out with Cornhusk about halfpast 7 o'clock in the morning. I went into the house and cart with him and we went to the ditch in the rear of the hay stack. I took the big axe with me, as we generally did to cut roots out. Cornelius sat down under the big tree and I got behind him. My heart failed me and it was some time before I could bring myself up to commit the deed. I walked by his side. I saw that he was a devil, and I felt that I could have killed a hundred persons if they had been about the farm.

TOWN AND COUNTY.

Items Collected from all Parts of the County.

OUR OUTSIDE.—The beginner in Trout Fishing will find some useful hints on our fourth page. In the same column the negro-suffrage bill of the Radicals in Congress, as exposed by the New York Times, a very able and responsible conservative Republican journal. On the first page, we give a capital article on Presence of Mind, which everybody should preserve and frequently read. Any one of its suggestions, if adopted in time of emergency, might prove of incalculable value—hundreds, thousands of times over the yearly subscription price of the Compiler. On the same page our farmers will find information in regard to the assessment of internal revenue of special interest to them; whilst the political preachers may gather some fuel for action from the death of the fallen Henry Clay.

MONUMENT IN THE PUBLIC SQUARE.

A movement is on foot for the erection of a monument to the deceased soldiers of Adams County, in the Public Square, in this borough. We have frequently thought and suggested that some proper and enduring memorial of the great battle fought here should be placed in that location, and do not know that it could be accomplished in a more appropriate way than by the monument proposed to our deceased soldiers. The project is one of general interest, and, if judiciously started, will become an early success; and the means once raised, let good taste and the proper spirit be displayed by those having the management in hand, and the towering shaft will be looked upon with patriotic pride by all our people throughout succeeding ages.

The reader is referred to the call for a meeting on the subject, in another column.

A GOOD RIDANCE.—The old seedy-looking building, in Baltimore street, opposite the Court-house, is, we are glad to say, now undergoing the process of demolition, and will soon be "among the things that were." In its stead, we understand that Mr. Cannon and Mr. Kendeich will put up jointly a double brick building, affording four rooms for business purposes. The improvement will doubtless be a handsome one—one which will be a credit to so central a portion of the town. The mere removal of the old "shanty" will help the looks of the street no little.

By the way, this is a good season for painting—such as and nothing beautiful buildings so much as new paint, would it not be well for the owners of houses which need the article, to bestir themselves in the matter, and have the work done without delay? A few, it gives us pleasure to state, are already at it, but a general "brushing up" is needed—needed as taste, as those of the many visitors attracted here during all seasons of the year.

ORPHANS' HOMESTEAD.

The property formerly owned by Capt. John Myers, adjoining the National Cemetery, has been purchased for the Orphans' Homestead—Mr. Wolf, (who in the spring bought it from Hon. James Wilson at $2,500,) receiving $3,500 therefor. There are probably two acres of ground, improved with a large two-story brick house, with stable, good water, a garden, a fine orchard, &c. The location is an admirable one, and we think the Directors fortunate in securing the property. We understand that about eighty orphans will soon be placed in the Homestead.

DEATH OF A DIRECTOR.

We learn that Mr. Abraham Krise, of A., elected Director of the Poor last fall, died at his residence, in Liberty town, on Friday morning last, after a protracted illness. He was an honest man and a good citizen, and his death is lamented by a large circle of friends and acquaintances. The death of Mr. Krise will render necessary the election of two Directors in October next.

SUDDEN DEATHS.

The New York Press states that two sudden deaths occurred in that town recently of inflammation of the bowels. Miss Mary T. Zimmerman, an amiable and accomplished daughter of Mr. Conrad Z. Zimmerman, and Mr. Logan Nyson, a son-in-law of Dr. Shearer, of Dillsburg, who but recently went to York in good health, to enter upon business in that place. Both cases terminated fatally after an illness of four or five days.

THE HUBBARD REAPER AND MOWER.

By an advertisement in another column we have seen that Henry Thomas & Son have become Agents for this celebrated Machine, and are prepared to furnish machines promptly to those standing in need of the article. These machines, although something new in this county, have been thoroughly tested in Maryland and adjoining counties, and in every case, we are assured, have given entire satisfaction. Their superiority over all other machines of the kind, is acknowledged by all who have tried them. They possess many advantages not usually found in other combined Reapers and Mowers, all of which are fully explained in the advertisement. Specimen machines can be seen by calling on the agents, who also keep on hand extra fixtures for repairing the machines when needed.

We again refer our readers to the advertisement of the Revenue Extension Silver Mining Company. There can be no doubt that a company who own a Silver Ledge and will work it, must pay large dividends; and judging from the high standing of the officers of this company, and the well-attested richness of its property, there would seem to be scarcely a possibility of failure.

We are requested to announce that the sacrament of the Lord's supper will be administered in the United Presbyterian church in this place, on the 3rd Sabbath of May, (20th inst.) Preparatory services on Saturday preceding, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

RECORD YOUR DEEDS.

The attention of parties holding unrecorded deeds is directed to the provisions of the Act of Assembly, which require that all deeds and conveyances be recorded in this Commonwealth, as for real estate in the County of Berks, in the County where the land is situated, and every such deed and conveyance, and every such mortgage, shall be void against all subsequent bona fide purchasers for a valuable consideration, unless such deeds be recorded in the County where the land is situated, and every such mortgage be recorded in the County where the land is situated, and every such mortgage be recorded in the County where the land is situated.

All deeds and conveyances for real estate in this Commonwealth, as for real estate in the County of Berks, in the County where the land is situated, and every such deed and conveyance, and every such mortgage, shall be void against all subsequent bona fide purchasers for a valuable consideration, unless such deeds be recorded in the County where the land is situated, and every such mortgage be recorded in the County where the land is situated, and every such mortgage be recorded in the County where the land is situated.

This is a very important notice, and those holding unrecorded deeds will see the importance of having them recorded without further delay.

All deeds and conveyances for real estate in this Commonwealth, as for real estate in the County of Berks, in the County where the land is situated, and every such deed and conveyance, and every such mortgage, shall be void against all subsequent bona fide purchasers for a valuable consideration, unless such deeds be recorded in the County where the land is situated, and every such mortgage be recorded in the County where the land is situated, and every such mortgage be recorded in the County where the land is situated.

All deeds and conveyances for real estate in this Commonwealth, as for real estate in the County of Berks, in the County where the land is situated, and every such deed and conveyance, and every such mortgage, shall be void against all subsequent bona fide purchasers for a valuable consideration, unless such deeds be recorded in the County where the land is situated, and every such mortgage be recorded in the County where the land is situated, and every such mortgage be recorded in the County where the land is situated.

TO THE CITIZENS OF ADAMS COUNTY.

The Battles of July 1st, 2nd and 3rd, 1863, in which the loyal Heroes of the Republic met and overthrew armed rebellion, have immortalized the field of Gettysburg, and the nation has appropriately recognized its regard for the patriotic deed which on that occasion, by the consecration and improvement of a National Cemetery.

It is due to the memory of the brave men of Adams County who have fallen in the service of the Republic, that their immediate fellow citizens should erect a memorial upon this great battle-field, of such character and proportions as shall be creditable to the country, and all that is necessary to crown the movement with success, is prompt and efficient organization. To this end we respectfully invite the citizens of Adams County, and especially the surviving soldiers of the war, to meet at the Court House, in Gettysburg, on SATURDAY, the 26th day of MAY, last, to adopt such measures as may be deemed advisable to secure the erection of a Monument to the memory of our fallen Heroes, in the centre of the Public Square, in Gettysburg, on which shall be inscribed the names of all Adams County soldiers who have died in the service of their country.

The meeting will commence at 10 o'clock, A. M., on the day above named.

C. H. Baehler, Jr. Col. 165th Infy., W. W. Stewart, " 182d " G. W. Frederick, Capt. Col. 165th Infy., W. J. Martin, " 182d " Robert Bell, Major 21st Pa. Cav., N. C. Camp, " 165th Infy., D. B. Jenner, A. D. C., H. S. Renner, Brig. Maj. 101st Infy., J. H. White, Adj. 165th Infy., J. W. Cress, " 182d " James R. Hersh, Co. M. 37th " W. R. Culp, Co. M. 37th " T. T. Tate, Asst. Surg. 31st Cav., John Horner, Capt. Col. 165th Infy., A. M. Hunter, " 182d " J. C. Norris, " 101st " T. P. McCreary, " 182d " G. A. Eamshaw, " 182d " J. M. Miller, " 182d " J. C. Peffer, 201st Infy., P. T. Tate, 201st Infy., Geo. E. Kitzmiller, Lieut. 1st P. V. B. Co., T. S. Welly, Lieut. 101st Infy., C. Snyder, " " W. F. Baker, " 182d " C. H. Hank, " 182d " J. N. Borer, " 182d "

It was intended to secure the names of all the commissioned officers of the county, to this call, but there was not time to do so.

The Washington correspondent of the Springfield Republican says that, at Gen. Grant's reception, some weeks ago, at Gen. Johnson and Thaddeus Stevens met and shook hands; but, "It was Thaddeus who made the advances and the President accepted them politely." He adds:

"The President's political resentments are deep and personal, but Thad. Stevens will abuse a man most ferociously in a public speech, and five minutes after go and invite him to lunch with the best of brotherly intentions."

This is no doubt true. A man of truth, honesty and earnestness in the right, can not meet a deadly foe to all he holds dear with cordiality, smiles or friendship. The demagogue, however, who is always playing the attorney for his pocket or his ambition, can "smile, and smile, and be a villain still."

A lot of negroes at Macon, Georgia, last week attempted to rescue from the authorities a negro woman who had been arrested for murder. The military arrested about fifty of them and confined them in the barracks. They probably didn't know their "civil rights."

James P. Lane, editor of the Libertyville (Ind.) Journal, a radical, has been removed from the Postmastership of that city. The radical Postmaster at Taunton, Mass, has also been removed.

President Johnson will veto the bill for the admission of Colorado, it is confidently asserted. It cannot be passed over the veto.

Of all the pests now raging in this country the Niggerpest is the worst. It prevails in its blackest form in Washington city, and is a far more offensive disease than small-pox, cholera or rinderpest.

Governor Patton, of Alabama, has issued a proclamation, declaring the new penal law of the State in force on and after the 1st day of June. The law punishes horse and mule stealing with death.

At the election at Quincy, Ill., on the 16th, Matilda Bonn, Democrat, was elected Mayor by 407 majority.

Astronomers have discovered that the moon is drawing gradually nearer to the earth, by about an inch every year. They have also discovered that the day is about one hundredth of a second longer now than it was two thousand years ago.

An attempt was made to assassinate the Czar of Russia, on the 10th ult. A shot was fired at him as he was entering his carriage, but the ball missed its mark. The late treatment of Poland probably renders this a reliable report of the Russian Government in that way.

In writing of the Disunion amendment for the Constitution, the New York Tribune exultingly exclaims: "No State shall deny any person equality before the law." According to that organ it means all that the advocates of negro suffrage and equality want it to mean.

The Cincinnati Commercial and New York Times—both able and influential Republican journals—are strenuously opposed to the amendment of the "Reconstruction Committee" of fifteen.

The Johnston Democrat says Col. Campbell, Surveyor General, is not appointing soldiers to clerkships in his office. Why?

In Pontotoc county, Mississippi, a negro woman has been arrested for starving her mother and four children to death.

Ex-Governor Loe, of Maryland, was on Saturday week adjudged to be insane by the several courts of N. Y. city.

Mr. Jefferson Davis had an affecting and tender interview with her husband in the prison at Fort Monroe, on the 31st inst.

The Louisville Journal thinks the South has the best of it after all—it being only unrepresented, while the North is represented.

The Mobile Register denies having announced Gen. R. E. Lee as a candidate for President.

The Democracy and Johnson Republicans of Indiana have made fusion against the Disunionists.

Stephen, the Head Centre of the Feline, has arrived at New York.

Judge Abell, at New Orleans, has decided the Civil Rights law to be unconstitutional.

HOW TO BE DEAD!

Why are Radicals so popular? How can they have ever been so successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career? They have been successful, when they have been successful, because they have been successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career. They have been successful, when they have been successful, because they have been successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career.

APPEAL NOTICES.

Why are Radicals so popular? How can they have ever been so successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career? They have been successful, when they have been successful, because they have been successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career. They have been successful, when they have been successful, because they have been successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career.

Why are Radicals so popular? How can they have ever been so successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career? They have been successful, when they have been successful, because they have been successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career. They have been successful, when they have been successful, because they have been successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career.

Why are Radicals so popular? How can they have ever been so successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career? They have been successful, when they have been successful, because they have been successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career. They have been successful, when they have been successful, because they have been successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career.

Why are Radicals so popular? How can they have ever been so successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career? They have been successful, when they have been successful, because they have been successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career. They have been successful, when they have been successful, because they have been successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career.

Why are Radicals so popular? How can they have ever been so successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career? They have been successful, when they have been successful, because they have been successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career. They have been successful, when they have been successful, because they have been successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career.

Why are Radicals so popular? How can they have ever been so successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career? They have been successful, when they have been successful, because they have been successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career. They have been successful, when they have been successful, because they have been successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career.

Why are Radicals so popular? How can they have ever been so successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career? They have been successful, when they have been successful, because they have been successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career. They have been successful, when they have been successful, because they have been successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career.

Why are Radicals so popular? How can they have ever been so successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career? They have been successful, when they have been successful, because they have been successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career. They have been successful, when they have been successful, because they have been successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career.

Why are Radicals so popular? How can they have ever been so successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career? They have been successful, when they have been successful, because they have been successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career. They have been successful, when they have been successful, because they have been successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career.

Why are Radicals so popular? How can they have ever been so successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career? They have been successful, when they have been successful, because they have been successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career. They have been successful, when they have been successful, because they have been successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career.

Why are Radicals so popular? How can they have ever been so successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career? They have been successful, when they have been successful, because they have been successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career. They have been successful, when they have been successful, because they have been successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career.

Why are Radicals so popular? How can they have ever been so successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career? They have been successful, when they have been successful, because they have been successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career. They have been successful, when they have been successful, because they have been successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career.

Why are Radicals so popular? How can they have ever been so successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career? They have been successful, when they have been successful, because they have been successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career. They have been successful, when they have been successful, because they have been successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career.

Why are Radicals so popular? How can they have ever been so successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career? They have been successful, when they have been successful, because they have been successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career. They have been successful, when they have been successful, because they have been successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career.

Why are Radicals so popular? How can they have ever been so successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career? They have been successful, when they have been successful, because they have been successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career. They have been successful, when they have been successful, because they have been successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career.

Why are Radicals so popular? How can they have ever been so successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career? They have been successful, when they have been successful, because they have been successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career. They have been successful, when they have been successful, because they have been successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career.

Why are Radicals so popular? How can they have ever been so successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career? They have been successful, when they have been successful, because they have been successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career. They have been successful, when they have been successful, because they have been successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career.

Why are Radicals so popular? How can they have ever been so successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career? They have been successful, when they have been successful, because they have been successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career. They have been successful, when they have been successful, because they have been successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career.

Why are Radicals so popular? How can they have ever been so successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career? They have been successful, when they have been successful, because they have been successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career. They have been successful, when they have been successful, because they have been successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career.

Why are Radicals so popular? How can they have ever been so successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career? They have been successful, when they have been successful, because they have been successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career. They have been successful, when they have been successful, because they have been successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career.

Why are Radicals so popular? How can they have ever been so successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career? They have been successful, when they have been successful, because they have been successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career. They have been successful, when they have been successful, because they have been successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career.

Why are Radicals so popular? How can they have ever been so successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career? They have been successful, when they have been successful, because they have been successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career. They have been successful, when they have been successful, because they have been successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career.

Why are Radicals so popular? How can they have ever been so successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career? They have been successful, when they have been successful, because they have been successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career. They have been successful, when they have been successful, because they have been successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career.

Why are Radicals so popular? How can they have ever been so successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career? They have been successful, when they have been successful, because they have been successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career. They have been successful, when they have been successful, because they have been successful in their unprincipled and unscrupulous career.

